

With Scott to the Pole (Part Three)

Scott's Route

'Part of the Antarctic Regions showing the sphere of operations of the British Antarctic Expedition 1910-13 under Capt. R. F. Scott'. It shows the route of the Southern Party in their quest to reach the South Pole. It also shows when and where the men died: Evans on February 17th 1912; Oates on March 17th; and Scott, Wilson and Bowers on March 29th only 11 miles south of One Ton Depot. This map was published in the Society's Geographical Journal, Vol. XLI. No.3: March 1913, page 225.
