

Medals and Awards 2006

● HER MAJESTY THE QUEEN has approved the award of the ROYAL MEDALS as follows:

Founder's Medal

Professor Derek Gregory

for international leadership of research in human geography and social theory

Patron's Medal

Professor Jack Ives

for his role internationally in establishing the global importance of mountain regions

● THE SOCIETY'S COUNCIL has made the following awards:

Victoria Medal

Professor Jim Rose

for contributions to Quaternary research

Busk Medal

Hugh Brammer

for contributions to the understanding of tropical land and agriculture

Murchison Award

Professor Tony Gatrell

for contributions to the geography of health

Back Award

Professor Graham Houghton

for contributions to policy in sustainable urban development

Gill Memorial Award

Dr Alison Stenning

for contributions to the geographical study of Eastern Europe

Ordnance Survey Awards (two awards)

Stuart Cousins

Ian Dixson

in recognition of excellence in teaching geography in secondary education

Taylor & Francis Award

Dr Gordon Clark

for contributions to learning and teaching geography in higher education

Ness Award

John Pilkington

for the popularisation of geography and the wider understanding of our world

Edward Heath Award

Professor Paul White

for contributions to geographical research in Europe

Honorary Fellowship

Tony Thomas

for the promotion of fieldwork in geography

Alfred Steers Dissertation Prizes

Caroline Parks
University of Manchester for the best undergraduate dissertation submitted for a first geography degree

Area Prize

Dr Clare Herrick
University College London for the best single-authored published article in the journal by a new researcher