

EXPLORE 2011

The annual expedition and fieldwork
planning weekend

Royal Geographical Society

with IBG

Advancing geography and geographical learning

- Saturday 19 – Sunday 20 November 2011
- 100+ leading field researchers and explorers
- Inspiration, contacts, advice
- At the Society in the heart of London
- Book online at www.rgs.org/explore

EXPLORE 2011

19–20 November

Student price £65 for the weekend, full price £85 for the weekend

- Book before 14 October 2011 for Early Bird discounts.

EXPLORE 2011 takes place at the Society's headquarters in London.

There will be a Pre-Explore lecture by Atlantic Rising, recipients of the RGS/IBG and Land Rover 'Go Beyond' bursary, on the evening of Friday 18 November 2011.

Be inspired by over 100 leading field scientists and explorers who will provide contacts and advice through key lectures, workshops and one-to-one consultations on a wide-range of topics:

- Working in remote environments:
desert, polar, forest, marine, mountain and rivers
- Field research skills: biological, earth and human sciences, GIS and field mapping, education projects
- Vehicle or bicycle dependent expeditions
- Communicating discoveries: film, new media and journalism
- Exhibits displaying innovative field equipment and other expedition services
- Planning overseas field research, conservation or adventure projects

For further information about EXPLORE 2011 contact:

Geography Outdoors: the centre supporting field research, exploration and outdoor learning

Royal Geographical Society (with IBG)

1 Kensington Gore London SW7 2AR

T +44 (0)20 7591 3030

F +44 (0)20 7591 3031

E go@rgs.org

W www.rgs.org/explore

Images

Main © Atlantic Rising

Top © Quin Murray/Coral Cay Philippines

Bottom © James Harwood/Heart of Borneo Project