● £1,000 for a female physical geographer to undertake fieldwork overseas

The Monica Cole Research Grant offers £1,000 each year to a female physical geographer undertaking original fieldwork overseas. The Grant is given in memory of Professor Monica Cole, an eminent physical geography researcher.

Born in 1922, Monica Cole was a leader in the field of geo-botany. Her career spanned continents and decades. She held the position of Chair of Geography at Bedford College for many years. Shortly after her retirement in 1975, she received the RGS-IBG Murchison Medal for major contributions to the geography of South Africa and to the understanding of savannas. The application deadline is 22 January 2010

Eligibility

- Applicants must be female students registered with a UK Higher Education Institution
- Applicants must be a physical geographer undertaking original fieldwork overseas
- Both undergraduate and post-graduate students are eligible to apply
- Projects that involve joining an existing commercial organisation on a pre-paid tour will not be considered

Application process

Applications should be submitted by email in word format to the Grants Officer at the Society. Deadlines will be strictly enforced.

Applications must contain the following information:

- Name and full contact details (please include an email address)
- Academic affiliation, course of study and year of residence
- Title and short abstract, giving context to the research (max 100 words)

- Aim of the project and the supporting objectives (max 250 words)

- A fully itemised budget. This should include travel, accommodation and per diem costs, as well as details of the source of funds for budgeted costs that exceed the value of the award
- Please do not send supporting documents such as previous reports, these will not be used when screening the applications.

Please indicate how you heard about the Monica Cole Research Grant

Referee statements

Two referee statements are required. Neither referee should be involved in the project. One referee should be a specialist who can comment on the research proposal.

Please send each of your referees a copy of the Referee Guidelines below and ask them to send the references directly to the Grants Officer by 22 January. References should be sent by email. Applications will be jeopardised if referee statements are not received on time.

Selection process

Applications will be assessed by an external panel of experts. The assessors will consider how closely the application matches the criteria and the ability of the applicant to carry it out.

Applicants may be called for interview in London during March. Award winners will be notified and announced by mid April

Conditions

- The RGS-IBG requires that the research it funds be conducted in an ethical and responsible manner and that recipients fulfil all their institution's health and safety requirements and ethical approvals. Full details of the Society's ethical guidelines for research can be found in a pdf at www.rgs.org/grants-ethics
- Within a month of completion a preliminary report of 1,000 words must be submitted.
- A full final report must be submitted electronically and in hard copy by 1 September of the year following the award. The final report must include a 250 word abstract, a description of the project and its key findings (1000 words minimum), three to five digital images that capture the spirit of the project and its results, a final budget, and details of presentations, publications and any other outputs
- The award winner may be asked to present a lecture on the project work at the RGS-IBG at a mutually convenient date
- The Society's support should be acknowledged in all publications and outputs. Copies of any such publications and outputs should be submitted to the Society
- Award details may be published in the Society's publications and on the website
