
One of the tribes under attack is called the Fur. True.

Drought is one cause of the conflict. True.

Religion is one cause of the conflict. False. A UN report suggests similar religion

Desertification is one cause of the conflict. True.

Desertification is when people are forced to live in the desert. False. It means land is turning to desert.

Overpopulation is one cause of the conflict. True.

Overpopulation means that there are not enough resources to meet the needs of the population. True.

The land in Darfur is lush and green. False. It is arid and impoverished.
The situation is likely to improve in the future.

False. Climate change is making the situation worse.

As many as 1 million people have had to leave their homes.

False. The figure is closer to 2.5 million.

Nomads searching for water have to take their livestock south to land occupied by Black Africans.

True.

The Sudanese government has been accused of neglecting the region.

True.

The Sudanese government has been accused of oppressing non-Arabs in favour of Arabs.

True.

All of the refugee camps are in Darfur.

False. They are also in neighbouring Chad.

Many villages in Darfur have been burned to the ground.

True.

There is one clear cause of the war in Darfur.

False. There are several reasons and they are all interlinked.

Land is divided according to colonial ways where one chief is in charge of dividing up the land.

True.