1. What am I?

   My name is…

   Three facts about me are…
   1.
   2.
   3.

2. L________________ are an example of two o____________________ living together in a s____________________ relationship. This means…

   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

3. There are three main types. These are…

   1.
   2.
   3.

4. Why are they useful?

   a. In the environment?

   b. As a resource for human beings?

   c. To help us understand the health of the environment?

5. Write down the aims of the fieldwork activity in the space below.