The Raising Awareness Campaign

Your Mission:
To create an Action Plan to make people in your local area aware of the situation in the Democratic Republic of Congo and advise them on what they can do to help.

You will need to think about the following:

1. What exactly do people need to know about what has happened?
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………

2. How are you going to give local people this information?
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   ………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………………
3. Think of the different ways people can help. What can you advise people to do?

A lot of your mission is about giving information and publicising it. Think about the different ways to reach as many people as possible e.g. radio, local TV news, school visits.

4. How can you get people involved?

The Aid Agency

Your Mission:
You run an Aid agency and you want to help the people of the Democratic Republic of Congo. You and your team need to come up with a strategy so that your help is effective and reaches the people who need it the most as soon as possible.

You will need to think about the following:

1. What type of help can you offer the people of the Democratic Republic of Congo? Which of these do you think is the most important and therefore your top priority?

2. What type of people will be in your team of volunteers? What skills will they need?
3. What training will you need to give before your volunteers go to the Democratic Republic of Congo?

4. What difficulties do you think you might face and how are you going to overcome them?

The Activists

Your Mission:
You want international action and you want it now! As activists you want to governments around the world to get involved and help the situation in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

You need to think about the following:

1. Which governments from which countries do you think will be able to help? Justify your choice of countries.

The British Government

Your Mission:
As the British Government you have to decide what your view is about what is happening in the Democratic Republic of Congo and what, if anything, you are going to do about it. You must consider the opinions of the people in your country and your international responsibilities.

You will need to think about the following:

1. What could you do to help?
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………

2. Should you get involved in what is happening in another country? Justify your answers.
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
   …………………………………………………………………………………………………………
3. Do you have a global responsibility?

4. How will the British people feel about your decision? Does it matter how the British people feel?
