As agents, your job is to make an action plan for the Prime Minister to decide how to prepare London for the floods that are just about to happen. Use these sentence stems together with the map resources to produce your action plan.

The areas of London which are likely to be hit worse are__________________

There is a high population density in the areas of__________________
For this reason, we recommend that__________________

There are also many hospitals in the area of__________________
For this reason, the patients need to be _________________

There are many schools located in the areas of__________________
For this reason, children need to be _________________
We would recommend telling people to evacuate in these particular areas. We would recommend telling them by______________

For the transport in London we would recommend the following:

- For cars_____________________
- For buses____________________
- For tube trains________________