Lesson Four
Challenged by Water: Floods and Droughts
Climate Worksheet

The State that I’m investigating is ______________________

The annual highest temperature is: ______________________

The annual lowest temperature is: ______________________

Which month has the highest temperature? ______________________

Which month has the lowest temperature? ______________________

The average temperature is ______________________

The average annual precipitation is ______________________

The average annual snowfall is ______________________

Which month has the most precipitation? ______________________

Which month has the least precipitation? ______________________

How would you describe the climate of this state in three words?

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________