Maintain an up-to-date knowledge and understanding of the professional duties of teachers & contribute to the development, implementation & evaluation of policies & practice in your school.

Communicate effectively with children, young people and colleagues, parents and carers.

Evaluate your performance and be committed to improving your practice through appropriate professional development.

Be prepared to adapt your practice where benefits and improvements are identified.

Know how to use skills in literacy, numeracy and ICT to support your teaching and wider professional activities.

Evaluate your performance and be committed to improving your practice through appropriate professional development.

Have high expectations of children.

Have an extensive knowledge and understanding of how to use and adapt a range of teaching, learning and behaviour management strategies.

Have a good, up-to-date working knowledge and understanding of a range of teaching & learning and behaviour management strategies.

Have a secure knowledge and understanding of your subjects/curriculum areas & related pedagogy including their contribution to cross curricular learning.

Provide timely, accurate and constructive feedback on learners’ attainment, progress and areas for development.

Know how to personalise learning to provide opportunities for all learners to achieve their potential.

Make effective use of a range of assessment, monitoring and recording strategies.

Know a range of approaches to assessment, including the importance of formative assessment.

Have a secure knowledge and understanding of your subjects/curriculum areas and related pedagogy to enable them to teach effectively across the age and ability range for which you are trained.

Know how to use skills in literacy, numeracy and ICT to support your teaching & wider professional activities.

Know how to use skills in literacy, numeracy and ICT to support your teaching & wider professional activities.

Contribute to the professional development of colleagues through coaching & mentoring, demonstrating effective practice, and providing advice & feedback.