CICERONE

Cicerone

With nearly 400 books and e-books, Cicerone guides are the UK's leading source of reliable information for walkers, trekkers, mountaineers and cyclists, enjoyed by enthusiasts and professionals alike. There are Cicerone guides to Britain's best routes, long-distance paths and national trails. But when it comes to exploring overseas, the choice is second to none, with a highly regarded range of nearly 200 titles to help you explore Europe and many major, and often very remote mountain areas of the world.

Go for it – Explore!

Equal Adventure

Equal Adventure (EA) is an enterprising, innovative and socially-minded organisation, working with disabled people to improve the inclusiveness of outdoor adventure activities, sport and active lifestyles. EA provides training, outdoor activities, equipment and support to enable meaningful inclusion with disabled people, whether it be at an outdoor centre or on expedition. Additionally, EA also explores inclusive practice with disabled people from an ability centred perspective. As such, our award winning equipment and powered all terrain wheelchairs supports the needs of the individual, while our IOL accredited training provides advisers, coaches and instructors with the encouragement and confidence to provide an all-inclusive package for disabled people.

Encounter
Edu

Encounter Edu

Encounter Edu designs and runs STEM and Global Citizenship education programmes linking global issues to the classroom. Combined, these virtual exchanges, live broadcasts and teacher resources provide children with the experience to develop as critical thinkers for the 21st century. Over 10 years, Encounter Edu has travelled the world and its Poles producing STEM and geography resources made with the people working on the frontlines of research, be a scientist in the Arctic, a robotics engineer at Oxford or an aquanaut exploring the deep ocean.

Geographical

Geographical

Geographical is the magazine of the Royal Geographical Society (with IBG) and was founded by Michael Huxley in 1935. Informative, authoritative and educational, it covers a wide range of subject areas, including geography, culture, wildlife and exploration, illustrated with superb photography.

Geographical Expeditions is the magazine that takes your adventures further. Published quarterly and delivered to all readers of Geographical, we want to add context to your travels, enrich your experiences and excite your curiosity.

Land Rover

Since 1948 Land Rover has been manufacturing authentic 4x4s that represent true 'breadth of capability' across the model range. Defender, Discovery, Discovery Sport, Range Rover, Range Rover Sport, Range Rover Velar and Range Rover Evoque each define the world's SUV sectors, with 80 per cent of this model range exported to over 100 countries.

The Land Rover Bursary was first awarded by the Royal Geographical Society (with IBG) in 2007, offering funding and the use of a Land Rover vehicle, as part of a partnership that stretches back more than 35 years. The bursary is awarded every year to an enthusiastic team who undertake a journey for which a Land Rover is integral, to promote a wider understanding and enjoyment of geography and to take the recipients beyond their normal limits and boundaries.

Jaguar Land Rover is on a journey to Destination Zero – a world of zero emissions, zero accidents and zero congestion. Our ambition is to make our societies safer and healthier and our environment cleaner through relentless innovation, adapting our products and services to the rapidly-changing world around us.

Love The Oceans

Love the Oceans is a non-profit marine conservation organisation working in Guinjata Bay, Mozambique. Guinjata Bay, whilst home to a huge host of marine life, has never been studied in depth for any prolonged amount of time. Love The Oceans is working to protect and study the diverse marine life found here, including many species of sharks, rays and the famous humpback whales. We use research, education and diving to drive action towards a more sustainable future. Our ultimate goal is to establish a Marine Protected Area for the Inhambane Province in Mozambique, achieving higher biodiversity whilst protecting endangered species.

Our research includes fisheries, megafauna, ocean trash, tagging and coral reefs, we run two community outreach projects and have a range of capacity building projects as the MPA will be established using a community-led, bottom-up approach.

Mountain Energy

Mountain Energy is a UK-based expedition company specialising in expeditions to Europe, South Africa & South America. We are a family run business with extensive experience of working with youth groups, schools and volunteer organisations. In addition to running expeditions, we also provide training in the UK and deliver mountain navigation courses as well as the prestigious Off Site Safety Management Course which is accredited by the RGS.

Nomad Travel

Nomad has been pioneering travel preparation since 1990; combining a Travel Clinic, Travel Pharmacy, Doctors Screening & Psychosocial services offering a unique and comprehensive approach to travel health. With teams across the UK, our clinics have assisted thousands of people to guarantee they leave fully prepared for their trip. We can ensure whether every day traveller, humanitarian aid worker, expeditioner or future record breaker – that wherever you are, or wherever you're going, you will #BeNomadReady

Plas Y Brenin

Plas y Brenin National Outdoor Centre was founded in 1955 and is a world-renowned provider of adventure sports and expedition training. From their base in the scenic heart of Snowdonia, Plas y Brenin's work is focused on developing inspiring leaders, coaches and instructors in the outdoors, be they volunteers or working professionally in the sector, to better support people, from all backgrounds, to explore and enjoy their world. The centre's team of instructors have undertaken expeditions across the world and operate to the highest levels in their fields. Plas y Brenin also offers an extensive programme of personal skill development courses in rock climbing, hillwalking, mountaineering, water safety, first aid, outdoor risk management, kayaking, canoeing, sea kayaking and mountain biking.

PRIME

Prime Bar Snacks

As keen mountaineers and ultra-runners, we were sick of all the horrible sweet and ultra-processed sports nutrition. Like others, we craved savoury and wanted real foods we could look forward to during or after a big day in the mountains! So we decided to solve the problem ourselves and make a range of delicious, savoury bars with British grass-fed beef, fruits, herbs and spices. No nasty unrecognisable ingredients, just real food you would find in your kitchen at home. We hope you enjoy them on your next adventure!

Rabbit Island

The Rabbit Island Foundation provides a platform to investigate, expand and challenge creative practices in a remote environment through the Rabbit Island Residency. By living and working on Rabbit Island—a 91 acre wilderness located in the largest freshwater lake in the world, Lake Superior—residents engage directly with the landscape and respond to notions of conservation, ecology, sustainability, and resilience. With the idea that the intelligent organization and celebration of wild spaces is the most civilized thing we can value as society, the residency reflects on the North American continent's four hundred year history of settlement and division of land. The island, an unsettled and undivided space, enables resident artists and researchers to present commentary on these ideas, creating creative interpretations and solutions to issues of global importance such as climate change and loss of natural habitat and pristine watersheds. Information on our 2020 residency opportunities can be found on our website.

Sail Britain

Sail Britain is an interdisciplinary sailing project working to inspire positive change for the oceans. Our programme explores Britain's wonderful coastline encompassing social, environmental and creative arts projects, and engagement with communities. We welcome people from all backgrounds to take part, learn to sail, and bring ideas and projects on-board to highlight the beauty and importance of our marine environment. Using the wonderful social space of our expedition yacht, the programme works towards cultural exchange and ocean literacy and offers a unique opportunity to connect with the ocean. Our 2019 season will be focusing on the West coast of Scotland, one of the world's most dramatic sailing grounds.

Scientific Exploration Society

Scientific Exploration Society (SES) is a UK based charity (No 267410) that leads, funds and supports scientific discovery, research and conservation in remote parts of the world offering knowledge, education and community aid. Our focus today is on supporting young explorers through our Explorer Awards programme, building a community of like-minded individuals through the Society's membership, offering regular explorer talks and providing opportunities to go on expedition.

If you are organising an expedition that aligns with SES's aims and ethos and are considering applying for an SES Explorer Award, or if you are interested in becoming a member of SES, please do come and talk to us at RGS-IBG Explore 2019.

Silk Road Training

Silk Road Training have radically redesigned travel safety, security and first aid training for those living in, working in and visiting challenging environments using online, 360 degree and VR training technology. We believe we can dramatically reduce the carbon footprint produced by the traditional methods of training delivery whilst making life saving knowledge accessible and affordable and improving safety standards globally.

SplashMaps Ltd.

SplashMaps is a sports mapping brand that's emerged from the simple idea of printing maps on weatherproof fabrics, much like the escape and evasion maps which saved so many lives in WW2. Beyond our maps of all National Parks and long-distance trails in Great Britain, we are unique in making the most versatile personalised maps of anywhere in the world... even the most remote locations. Modern day adventure travellers provide inspiration for our range of products which now include our own and licensed maps from the likes of Ordnance Survey, Harper Collins, USGS, NOAA, The UK Hydrographic Office, A to Z maps and many more. All printed onto performance fabrics
