Why should I join?

Becoming a School Member allows all the teachers and pupils in your school to enjoy the benefits of Society membership. It will enrich their subject knowledge through online case studies, articles, lesson activities, podcasts, lectures and discounted courses and training. You will be part of our network of geographers, inspiring a greater understanding of the world’s people, places, and environments.

You can join online at www.rgs.org/smjoin or complete this application form and email it to education@rgs.org

Resources
- Access a wide range of engaging and challenging online resources linked to the National Curriculum and GCSE and A Level examination requirements.
- Receive free posters and other learning materials.
- Use exclusive articles and learning activities accompanying our award-winning podcasts.
- Browse our catalogue of resources to support fieldwork, data skills and the use of GIS.

Online lectures
Watch School Member and Monday night lectures on demand, supported by member-only resources.

Discounts and member benefits

Supporting geography
Your membership also supports the Society and our advocacy for the discipline.

Data protection
Your information will be treated with the strictest confidence. Your personal data will be processed for membership purposes only and will be shared with a small number of third parties for the purpose of providing you with membership services. We will never share your data for marketing purposes. As a Fellow or member, your personal details will be held as part of the Society’s historical archive. More information on our privacy policy can be found on our website.

School Member lecture series
Attend regular talks at the Society, tailored to specifications and delivered by leading geographers.

An ideal membership for pupils, giving access to excellent resources for GCSE and A Level, and enabling them to demonstrate their enthusiasm for geography in UCAS applications.
- Access to online resources
- Attend Society lectures and events
- Monthly subscription to digital Geographical magazine

Supporting schools
Other ways the Society supports schools:

Geography Ambassadors
The Geography Ambassador scheme recruits, trains and supports undergraduate, postgraduate, and workplace geographers to act as ambassadors for geography in the classroom and beyond. We run a range of careers and further study events including Going Places with Geography and Geography at University. Ambassador visits to your school can be booked for free.

Advocacy on the curriculum
The Society is a leading voice for the value of geographical education across schools and universities and advocates strongly to government about the value of geography, including fieldwork, as an essential part of the National Curriculum and at GCSE and A Level.

Recognising and celebrating geography
The Society’s annual programme of awards and competitions, for both teachers and their pupils, recognises and celebrates examples of excellent work in school geography.
